A delivery point that was active in the past but is currently not occupied (generally not occupied for 90 days or more) and not receiving mail delivery. It does not include businesses or homes under construction, demolished, or otherwise identified as unlikely to become active.

Available Nationwide. Updated monthly.

Contains the address of the vacant property. You would get the owners address of the property if it were different from the site address. This would be especially true if the home was a rental unit.
